

Imam Massimo Cozzolino Minister of Islamic religion since 2002 at penitentiary institutions located in the Campania Region, Member of the National Commission for Christian - Islamic Interreligious Dialogue - CEI (2009); General Secretary of the Italian Islamic Confederation (since 2014); Advisor to the Minister of the Interior in the Consultation for Italian Islam (since 2015);

Consultant to the Study Commission on the Phenomenon of Radicalization and Jihadist Extremism at the Presidency of the Council of Ministers (2016);

Consultant to the "Radicalization and its Causes" Commission established by the President of the Mediterranean Parliamentary Assembly – Malta (2016); Member of the Permanent Council for combating hate crimes and hate speech established at the Ministry of Justice (since 2017); Consultant at the Prosecutor's Office of the Court of Naples for the management of de-radicalization and counter-indoctrination paths (since 2017);

Member of RAN (Radicalisation Awareness Network), European Commission, (2018),

Member of the Board of Directors of the Great Mosque of Rome (since 2019) ITSS International Team For Study of Security – Verona. Expert Team: Crime, Extremism & Terrorism (2020)