

Prof Roberto Rossi Rosminian philosopher, Emeritus of History of Religions the Higher Institute of Religious Sciences "Ecclesia Mater" of the Pontifical Lateran University Professor from 2007 until retirement and at the Higher Institute of Religious Sciences "Fides et Ratio" of L'Aquila in the teachings of Philosophy of religion, The problem of God in 20th century philosophy, Problems and questions of philosophy From 1997 to 2002 also professor of Fundamental Theology and Dogmatic Theology at LUMSA. He is a member of the scientific committee of the Rivista Rosminiana, the oldest Italian philosophical magazine (founded in 1906) for which he has produced numerous essays and reviews and is a founding member of the International Society for the Unity of Sciences "L'Arcipelago".