

Prof Sharzad Houshmand Zadeh Muslim theologian, was born in Tehran and lives in Rome. Former professor of Islamic Studies at the Pontifical Gregorian University, invited professor of Islamic Studies at the Pontifical Theological Faculty Marianum; reader of Persian language and literature at Sapienza University. She is vice president of the Women's Council of the Pontifical Council for Culture and a member of the Council for Relations with Italian Islam of the Interior Ministry. She is a scientific consultant of the Focolare Interreligious Dialogue Center and a member of the Steering Committee of the Interconfessional Center for Peace, co-president of the Italian Religions for Peace Organization, president of the Women for Dignity association, co-president of the Karol Wojtiła association. After studying in the secular and traditional Center of Shiite Islam in the Holy City of Qom, she specialized in Islamic Theology at the University of Tehran, then graduated in Religious Sciences at the Pontifical University of Southern Italy. In 1999, Licentiate in Christian Fundamental Theology at the Pontifical Lateran University. She is on the Management Committee of Donne Chiesa Mondo dell'Osservatore Romano